Q Is this drug store in Plainfield? A Yes.

Q And how far is it from your house?

A About three blocks.

Q And you know the number of it?

A No, I don't remember the name of it.

Q Do you know the drugist?

A Yes, I can if you will give me time to think of it, Gilligan.

Q And you know his telephone number is 2276 Plainfield, and didn't you use that telephone this morning and call up somebody and endeavor to sell these statements?

A No, sir.

Q Didn't you want to auction them off?

A No.

Q Who did you call up?

A I don't know if I care to tell.

Q Why don't you care to tell?

A Because I don't want to.

Q Don't you think that puts you in a funny position when you are in possession of evidence belonging to the State and you call up, and qualify your answer, and you refuse to answer a question like this?

A No.

Q Why don't you tell us who you called up?

A Because I don't think it is necessary.
